MRMS SPOTLIGHT

MRMS 2019-2020 Teacher of the Year
Nominee Mrs. Watson.

Dear Families,

We had a meaningful, and fun Unity Day. Magothy River Middle School united together by wearing our orange and participated in team building activities in order to show our acceptance, kindness and inclusion of others. Please see the attached photos. Parents we are kindly requesting attendance notes be submitted in a timely manner. So that, teachers can mark your student's attendance as excused, which will also, allow your student to receive credit for make-up work. We have created and attached an attendance note template for your convenience.

Picture Re-Take Day

Mark your calendar for picture retakes which are scheduled for November 6, 2019. See attached flyer for details on how to order.

6th Grade Dance

Parents please review, complete and sign the attached permission slip for your student to attend the 6th grade dance. Permission slips are due on Monday, October 28, 2019 to the main office. Students may give their 5 can goods to their homeroom teacher. Huge SHOUT OUT to Ed Davino of Rockin Tunes Dj's for bringing the tunes to our dance! We appreciate your complimentary services.

Lastly, I am proud to announce that Mrs. Watson is MRMS's Teacher of the Year for the 2019-2020 school year!

Sincerely,
Dr. Williams

CLASSROOM HIGHLIGHTS

Students from Srta. Johnston's 3rd period (8th graders) practicing with difficult words to pronounce in order to prepare for an upcoming speaking assessment. Every time the students came into contact with the balloon, they had to say the word in front of their feet. Each group had a "coach" to correct them if they were mispronouncing something. After one minute, the students would move clockwise to the next difficult word to pronounce. There were six words in total.

CLASSROOM HIGHLIGHTS

Ms. Ebersberger's homeroom class using their cans to spell out their grade during "Can-struction."

On Saturday, October 19th, NJHS members, Olivia West, Kay Latt, Alex Clark and Rosemary Wilson weeded the flowerbeds in preparation for unity day. We are really impressed with their positive attitudes and work ethic.
