On behalf of the Office of World & Classical Languages, we would sincerely appreciate your help in promoting this summer’s language camps; El Campo del Bosque and Global Language Summer Center. Camp posters and flyers will arrive at your school soon and we ask that you please distribute these to the appropriate grades. An electronic copy of each flyer is attached for use in your school newsletter and to share with your PTA/PTO. The Office of World and Classical Languages would be happy to attend a PTA/PTO meeting to talk to your parents and community about the program and to answer questions. Please contact the Office of World and Classical Languages at 410-222-5440 for more information.

El Campo del Bosque June 25-29 th Arlington Echo	Grades 1 - 5	From the moment the student’s passport is stamped by immigration, they will find themselves in a thrilling world of Hispanic culture. Students will gain an introduction or enhance their existing Spanish language skills through the use of word games, skits, music, art, and outdoor activities such as canoeing, seining, swimming, and nature walks. This week long language learning experience is an exciting way to spend time this summer. Please see the attached flyer for the application and details or view online at World & Classical Languages Summer Camps .
Global Language Summer Center July 16-26 th Old Mill Middle North	Grades 4 - 6	The Center offers students the opportunity to choose one of four languages; Italian, Chinese, Spanish, or French. Students are immersed in the language and culture through games, songs, hands-on activities, music, art, cooking, guest performers, and a field trip to Washington D.C. This two week language learning experience was created to provide exposure to language at an early age to support learners as they prepare for middle school and to offer students a fun, engaging, and creative way to spend time this summer. Please see the attached flyer for the application and details or view online at World & Classical Languages Summer Camps .

Thank you for your support in sharing this language learning opportunity with your school and community!
