Yearbook

Do you want to see your child in the yearbook? We need any and all photos to make the 2023-24 Jones Yearbook the best one yet! We're looking for pics from the 1st day of school, Halloween, field trips, and any others that you may have snapped along the way. Please send to yearbook@jonespta.com. And keep an eye out for info coming soon about the yearbook committee!

Super Kids Service Project

For Christmas Super Kids is doing a service project. We are doing a gift drive for the families and kids in the NICU & PICU at University of Maryland. The NICU has recently put out a request for swaddles and baby books to share with families for holidays.

We are collecting swaddles, blankets, preemie and newborn clothing, books, coloring books, toys and more. New or gently used condition. I've also created an Amazon list with some of these things as well as some other things families in the NICU could use. We are also having the kids make cards so anyone who would like to donate even homemade cards is wonderful too.

As a family who spent our holidays in the hospital last year with our daughter Ellie, I know how hard this time is for families and how special even the smallest gestures can be. If you have anything you would like to donate let me know. I can meet or pick things up from the school. I plan to deliver all these items the week of December 18th so we are asking all cards and donations to be turned in by December 15th.

Here is the link for the amazon list <https://www.amazon.com/registries/gl/guest-view/2CVOHIDIHVNNY>

Please reach out if you have any questions to jonessuperkids@gmail.com

Thank you
