RE: 2022-23 TAAAC Tutor Pool Listing Service

The 2022-23 TAAAC Tutor Pool has been compiled and includes a wide variety of subject areas. Our listing provides parents with an excellent selection of qualified personnel to resolve their children's individual remedial needs.

Please remind parents, teachers, pupil personnel workers and others of the availability of this TAAAC service. Because our listing is continually updated throughout the year, we ask that you refer those in need of tutoring services to the TAAAC office. This will ensure that they receive the most current information in the subject area(s) needed.

For your reference, we have enclosed some information regarding our listing service, and the ethical confines of the program set up the TAAAC and the Board of Education.

Thank you, in advance, for your assistance in bringing this service to the community. Should you have any questions regarding our program, please feel free to give me a call.

INTRODUCTION

WHAT IS THE 2022-2023 TAAAC TUTOR POOL LISTING SERVICE?

- A central source from which parents can obtain qualified help for their children.
- The forty-seventh edition of a yearly service to the community and members of the United Education Profession.
- A listing compiled by the staff of the Teachers Association of Anne Arundel County.

TO THE SUPERVISOR, PRINCIPAL OR GUIDANCE COUNSELOR:

The Tutor Pool has been devised to help those county students in need of tutorial services. It is hoped that in your role, you will check to make sure that this program is operated within the ethical confines set up by the Teachers Association of Anne Arundel County (TAAAC) and the Board of Education. These ethical considerations are listed on the following page.

TO THE PARENT:

If for any reason you should find the services of an individual tutor to be unsatisfactory, please call the TAAAC office at 410-224-3330, 410-841-6022 or 301-261-8309, daily from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. or write: TAAAC, 2521 Riva Road, Suite L7, Annapolis, Maryland 21401.

NOTE: Where a dollar amount is listed, it is an hourly rate. The days when tutors are available are also indicated. In many cases fees are negotiable.

TO THE TUTOR:

Please be aware of the ethical considerations which govern your activities as a tutor. They are listed on the following page.

ETHICAL CONFINES ESTABLISHED FOR TUTORING

Article 2, Item R of the TAAAC Master Agreement reads as follows:

“Information disseminated to Unit I members and TAAAC concerning its tutoring service shall include the following statement:

Tutoring for which compensation is involved shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. During the school year, regularly employed teachers may not tutor students attending the school to which they are assigned in any subject offered in that school's regular curriculum, and pupil services persons shall not provide private professional services for pay for students enrolled in the school(s) to which they are assigned.
2. Before beginning work for pay with any student, the tutor shall have consulted with the regular teacher of the subject to be tutored. Where receipt of a unit of credit is involved, the tutor and the student shall have received prior approval from the local school principal. Pupil services persons shall have consulted with the principal before beginning work for pay with any student outside the school(s) to which they are assigned.”

Board of Education Policy

801.15 Tutoring for Pay

During the school year no teacher, regularly employed in a school, may tutor for pay any student enrolled in that school.
