

Anne Arundel County Public Schools | Division of Human Resources

Request for Religious Accommodation

Directions: To be completed by the Employee/Applicant.

Submit to: AACPS, Human Resources, 2644 Riva Road, Annapolis, MD 21401; fax: 443-458-6312

| Employee/Applicant Name  |                      | Date of Request |
|--|----------------------|-----------------|
| Job Title  | Office/Work Location | Work Phone      |
|  |                      |                 |
| Describe your religious belief, observance   | e, or practice.      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
| How does the workplace requirement conflict with your religious belief, observance, or practice? |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
| What is your requested accommodation? Be as specific as possible.                                |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  |                      |                 |
|  | Date                 |                 |