| ANNAPOLIS | FOOTBALL | NICK GOOD-MALLOY The panthers honored Evan Mathews, a NJ high school quarterback who was very popular in their community, who tragically passed away earlier this year. They wore a helmet sticker with his number and shared his story by producing a YouTube video in hope that other schools would do the same. | FIELD HOCKEY | ANGELA CARPITA Her team produced a video explaining the causes of lung cancer and how it affects a family. This was shared with the community and sent to new agencies around the country. |
| ARUNDEL | BOYS SOCCER | MIKE McCARRON This team embraced one of their schools FLS students and accepted him as a member of their soccer team. They did an outstanding job in the way they celebrated him on senior night. The evening culminated with him scoring a goal in that nights exhibition game against northeast. | GIRLS BASKETBALL | LEE ROGERS This team continued a 15 year tradition of organizing a “play for the cure” night and raising money for breast cancer. They wore pink uniforms for that game and put together goodie bags to be given to that night’s opponent. Over the years they have raised over $50,000.00 to help fund the research for a cure to this terrible disease. |
| BROADNECK | BOYS SOCCER | SEAN TETTEMER Sean’s team was selected for the way they handled themselves on and off the field and for the respect they showed each of their opponents and officials. They made a point of not over celebrating when goals were scored. | GIRLS LACROSSE | KATY KELLEY Katy’s girls got involved with supporting their community in having a car wash fund raiser with the proceeds going to the SPCA. They also participated in 2 different walk/runs – 1 supporting diabetes awareness and the other to support a teammate’s family who lost a loved one. |
| CHESAPEAKE | CHEERLEADING | LISA ELLIOTT This group of ladies invited Kent Island high school football players and cheerleaders to join them in a powder puff football game. Prior to the game they had a meet and greet to start off their evening of fun. They also send cards and made posters to in an attempt to pick up the spirits of the Kent Island cheer squad after they failed to qualify for the state cheer finals (they were the team that were expected to win the 1a-2a title.) | GIRLS BASKETBALL | MARIA GRAY This group of girls worked with many of the younger girls in the area. They hosted a basketball clinic for 50 + girls in their community and beyond. They also hosted a lake shore basketball night at their school. From this they invited girls to be water girls for their home games. They coached a group of kindergarteners and 1st graders in a “girls got game” event. They also reached out to pear tree house, an assisted living facility in their community. Right before Christmas they delivered cookies and presents, assisted in making Christmas cards and entertained the residents by singing Christmas carols. |
| GLEN BURNIE | GIRLS SOCCER | DAVE SAUBLE This team was recognized for how they represented their program as they visited other schools around the county. Their school received emails praising how the girls handled themselves from the time they arrived, during the game and as they exited the stadiums to board their bus. | BOYS SOCCER | MATT REED Matt’s team completed close to 20 hours of community service per player during the season. They supported a campus beatification project by picking up trash around the school. They were involved with a peer mentoring program at their school. They reached out to feeder elementary schools by reading to their students, supporting running clubs and leading a hand with a field day at Glendale Elementary School. They also volunteered with local youth groups to help teach and mentor young soccer players. |

| MEADE | BASEBALL | ED GRAP Meade's baseball team is being recognized for consistently demonstrating respect and value for the game of baseball and their opponents. No matter the opponent, score, or conditions they faced, the integrity they showed each day is a refreshing reminder of what high school athletics is all about. | SOFTBALL | JENN RICHARDSON The mustang softball team wanted to give back to the community who raised them and to honor the men and women that continue to fight for our freedom. They honored 6 military veterans by having them throw out the first pitch of their game against Arundel. They also participated as a team in a school wide beatification day project by planting flowers, landscaping and picking up litter as a way to improve the appearance of Meade high school. |
| NORTHEAST | BOYS SOCCER | NICK HOVAKER ACCEPTING FOR NICK IS STEVE HALL We are recognizing this team for their part in Helping their evenings opponent celebrate one Of their own athletes on senior night. Along With Arundel HS they allowed a long time team Member with a disability to participate in an Untimed period of play and celebrated with the Wildcat players as this student/athlete scored a Goal. | WRESTLING | CHRIS DYKE Chris's wrestling program has participated the last 4 years in the "Toys for Tots" program through the US Marine Corp. They collect toys during their season at sporting events enlisting the school and communities support. |
| NORTH COUNTY | VOLLEYBALL | STEVE STIELPER The volleyball team organized a night to recognize their former coach Greg March, who passed away after a lengthy illness in 2014. The girls invited his family to a home match and introduced them to the fans to help the family deal with the healing process. The family was moved and appreciated this show of respect for their family member. | GIRLS BASKETBALL | DANIEL MANGUM SR. The Knight's women's basketball team is being recognized for their numerous supports of community activities. They raised food for the Anne Arundel county food bank. The team contributed to the Aeillo Breast Cancer Center at BWMC. They visited genesis rehabilitation center on December 23rd, and brought baked goods and sang Christmas carols to the residents to pick up their spirits for the holidays. |
| OLD MILL | FIELD HOCKEY | HEATHER ARNOLD The patriots hosted a "black out game" to benefit melanoma cancer research. Both the old mill and Broadneck communities came together to honor former athletic director Craig White, who lost his battle to this disease last summer. They invited the county health department to provide fans with information on sun safety and skin care. They also donated $500 to the American cancer society earned at their "play for the cure" game. | GIRLS SOCCER | LAUREN CARRIER Old mill girls soccer created a t-shite logo "red, white & blue" in honor of Craig White to represent his dedication to old mill. These shirts were sold around the county, in his home state and donated to each of his family members. This team used these shirts during their warm up the entire season. Short sleeve shirts were sold in the fall and they continued by selling long sleeve shirts through the winter. The profits from the sale of these shirts was $3000. The proceeds were presented to a melanoma charity in Craig's name. |
| SEVERNA PARK | GIRLS BASKETBALL | LISA MAGNESS The falcon girls made it a point to leave facilities as they found them. It did not matter whether it was a home or away game, the girls always cleaned their area and chairs. Numerous ad's contacted the school complementing them for doing this. | CHEERLEADING | ALYSHA BREDENKO This Severna Park cheer squad raised over $1000 for "Toys for Tots". They sponsored a huge donation night at a home basketball game and brought in 2 servicemen in to help promote this event. They put a lot of effort into supporting this cause. |

| SOUTH RIVER | CROSS COUNTRY | JOSH CARROLL Josh's cross country team received this award for their constant display of sportsmanship. The respect that they show for every other team at all events is unparalleled at our school. | FOOTBALL | EDWARD DOLCH This Seahawks team hosted CJ Burke and his family at a November 4th practice and then again the next night at our football senior night. Young CJ's mother was diagnosed with stage 4 breast cancer. She unfortunately recently passed away. The football program has already decided to include CJ in team events for years to come. |
| SOUTHERN | CHEERLEADING | NIKKI SISLER The southern cheer squad has displayed the highest level of sportsmanship by welcoming Carmen Houston-Ludlam to their squad. Carmen is a student with down syndrome and is enrolled in the ACC/FLS program. She has been in the program for the last 3 years. She participates in every routine and all stunts and has outstanding spirit that is infectious among the squad. The team chose carmen to represent the team on the school's athletic leadership council. | TRACK | LEON TUCKER Sothern's track program spends both the indoor and outdoor season visiting Brightview Assisted Living Center. They split themselves between the dementia ward and the assisted living group. They involve the residents with a "sit and be fit" exercise program. Sometimes they just sit a share stories with each other. The athletes share their past, present and future plans, and in response the elders share like stories. The joy the residents show on their faces as athletes spend time with them is evident and uplifting, and gives our kids much joy in return. |
