2023–2024 District Level Parent & Family Engagement Plan

AACPS believes in the support of parents and the greater community to increase student achievement.

Both the county's Parent Policy and the Title I Parent & Family Engagement Plan are written to ensure strong home-school-community partnerships and promotes the increase of effective comprehensive involvement practices — adapted from the AACPS Parent Policy which is part of the ESSA Consolidated Strategic Plan.

The Title I Office and schools use survey results to improve district wide initiatives, parent & family engagement workshops, volunteer programs, home-school communication and more.

District Level Family Engagement Survey: This annual survey is distributed to all families. We use the results to improve the quality of this Parent & Family Engagement Plan & initiatives.

Annual Parent Input Meeting: All Title I Schools hold this meeting at the end of the year. Families are asked to provide their input on the school compact, parent plan, & how Title I funds should be used at their child's school

Workshop Surveys: Evaluations are distributed at the end of each workshop. The feedback helps to improve our parent & family planned workshops.

Title I Supports Strong Effective Parent & Family Engagement. The Title I Office will...

...Build Parent Capacity by...

Hosting parent and family engagement workshops within Title I schools throughout the year to promote effective leadership skills, more effective communication with school staff, and build knowledge of academic standards and strategies. Topics this year include workshops on sparking your child's interests & passions, understanding math tools, number sense strategies, good questions to enhance comprehension, strategies to decode unknown words, and ways to encourage writing at home.

Building capacity by providing materials and training to parents through workshops, the quarterly Title I newsletter, and Title I website. This includes information about Title I, state and local assessments, academic standards, and strategies to support their child at home to increase student achievement.

Participating at district workshops at least once a year to inform parents about Title I and its requirements.

Providing parents with a list of upcoming parent and family engagement workshops offered at the school and district level.

...Build School Capacity by...

Monitoring schools and their parent and family engagement plan to ensure the annual parent input meeting is conducted toward the end of the year to gather parent input through in-person and virtual workshops as well as surveys, ensure all parent workshops include a parent evaluation/feedback form to continue to gain parent needs, and ensure parents have an opportunity to join the School Improvement Team and/or the school's parent advisory group as a means to encourage parent participation in the decision-making process.

Gathering input to share with school staff from the Parent & Family Engagement Meetings (PFE), parent evaluations, and spring surveys to determine satisfaction, suggestions, and recommendations for future parent initiatives and budgets, as well as input on professional development for instructional staff on how to work with parents as equal partners.

Reviewing School Improvement Plan to ensure parent offerings are aligned with instructional goals in areas of need.

Providing at least one presentation related to effective parent and family engagement at Title I sponsored professional development event for school-based staff.

Supplying a Title I Overview PowerPoint presentation to school staff to use during Title I Informational Workshop and site-based staff development which will include all parent and family engagement requirements.

Collaborating with AACPS to ensure all Title I related parent documents are distributed in a format and language parents understand. Interpreters will be provided as necessary.
