

Discover your Flight Path to Certification!

Interested in teaching with Anne Arundel County Public Schools?

Lets find out if teaching is the right path for you!

Are you currently a certified educator?

Whether you hold an in state or out of state certificate, we have a pathway for you! The state of Maryland has reciprocity with 47 states, making the transition of out of state certificates to a MD certificate a breeze!

Do you currently have a Bachelor's degree?

If so, you are likely eligible for a conditional teaching certificate in the state of Maryland! This type of certificate gives you time to complete the requirements to hold a professional teaching certificate!

*No degree? No problem!
You may be eligible to be a substitute teacher or teacher's assistant!*

Apply for the content area(s) your interested in at www.aacps.org/jobs!

Apply Now

Whether your interested in working with elementary aged kids or excited at the prospect of guiding high schoolers onto their next chapter, follow your passion when deciding what content area you may be interested in teaching!

Certification Support

If hired, our certification team will support you in the process of obtaining or renewing your certification!

Consider joining a certification program!

Interested in teaching a high needs content area? Our alternative certification program may be right for you! Click here to learn more.

Share the world with our students!

Congratulations! You've made it through the certification process and have joined #teamaacps! We are so excited to support you as you embark on this new adventure.

ADVENTURE AWAITS IN AACPS!