Congratulations! You are about to engage in a Service Learning project that could greatly benefit your community! To ensure that you are aptly prepared to be successful throughout the project, conduct some light research in order to address the questions below.

Possible Resources for your preparation include:

1. The AACPS Service Learning Website
2. The website of the organization(s) with which you will complete your project.
3. A contact from the organization(s) with which you will complete your project (you may call and ask any questions that you have)
4. Any AACPS approved search engine or database.

1. What is Service Learning (you will want to use your resources to answer this one) and why is it important for students to participate in it?

2. What will you do to make sure that your Service experience is also a Learning experience?

3. What organization will you serve with (If you will not be working with an organization, discuss the type of audience or group of people whom your project will serve)?

4. What specific population does this organization/will your project serve? (types of people, locations, etc)
